Exchange Rules for Eurex Deutschland and Eurex Zürich:
Information Inquiries of the Surveillance Authorities /
editorial Changes

As of December 15, 2006, by way of written circulation procedure, the Exchange Council of Eurex Deutschland decided on a change of the Exchange Rules for Eurex Deutschland and Eurex Zürich concerning the procedure of information inquiries of the surveillance authorities of the Eurex-Exchanges effective January 2, 2007. The corresponding decision of the Administrative Council of Eurex Zürich was taken in its session on December 14, 2006.

A new regulation concerning the procedure of information inquiry of the surveillance authorities (section 3.8.2 Exchange Rules) will be added to the Exchange Rules. The new regulation pursuant to section 3.8.2 Exchange Rules defines the cooperation between the Trading Surveillance Office of Eurex Deutschland (HÜST) and the Surveillance Office of Eurex Zürich AG (Independent Surveillance Eurex / ISE) with regard to filing information inquiries to exchange members with domicile in Germany or Switzerland and the procedure to be observed in conjunction with such inquiries. Both content and phrasing of the new regulation was agreed upon between the Exchange Supervisory Office for the German state of Hesse and the Swiss Confederal Banking Commission. It was then suggested to the Eurex Exchanges to implement the necessary changes.

Furthermore, for purposes of clarification, an extension of the regulation pursuant to number 4.9 "Evaluation of Data and Publication of Turnover" of the Exchange Rules was agreed upon. This extension makes clear, that the regulation also refers to data and information, which upon instigation of the Eurex Exchanges is transmitted to exchange members via separate technical connections, i.e., data lines and not via the Eurex[®] system. Such data and information may be used by exchange members exclusively for own purposes of trading and settlement.
